Other compulsory fees for international students

Students will need to pay two fees: one to obtain their student visa and another to obtain a mandatory document named RNM, from Brazil's Federal Police, as per federal regulations.

Housing information

UFF does not offer student housing. However, the ICO shares a list of accommodation recommendations based on the past experiences of other international mobility students.

Insurances

Students will need to obtain a health insurance of their choice to study at UFF. Health insurance must be valid within the national territory of Brasil, for their full period of stay. The insurance must include coverage for COVID-19.

Study permits/ visa process

A student visa is required for on-site mobility. The visa must be obtained BEFORE the student's arrival in Brazil. The time for concluding the visa request process varies, so it's recommended to start it as soon as the student receives their acceptance letter.

It's mandatory for every student to seek the closest Brazilian embassy or consulate to inquire about the correct visa to study in Brazil. The student visa is mandatory for every student who will develop academic activities in the country for a period longer than 90 days.

You must obtain the visa from the Brazilian consulate in your area of jurisdiction and, in some cases, a personal visit to the consulate may be required. You should apply for a visa from the consulate whose area of jurisdiction includes your permanent home.

Transportation

Arrival by plane

The nearest airport is Rio de Janeiro International Airport – Galeão – Antonio Carlos Jobim (GIG), located about 13.7 miles from UFF.

Bus

At the Terminal 1 (GIG), you can board either of two buses that go to Niterói, numbered 760D and 1900D. With the Moovit app you can see when the bus will arrive and ask the app to notify where you should drop off.

Cost of living

Estimated: R$ 1.700,00 per month (housing, transportation, food, and leisure)

UFF offers lunch and dinner, from Monday to Friday at the University Restaurant for only R$ 0,70 per meal.

Niterói

University Restaurants (Bandejões)

The University restaurants serve lunch and dinner on weekdays at a cost price.. Combining quality and low cost is one way of providing the best day-to-day conditions for everyone at the university.

Culture...

UFF is the main cultural scene in Niterói, with an Arts Center – comprising a theater, a movie theater, an art gallery and a photography gallery – that hosts international festivals and has always been praised by its high-quality equipment and spaces. In addition, UFF sponsors a National Symphony Orchestra, an Ancient Music Ensemble, a Choir and a String Quartet.

Gender Equality

Through the UFF's Committee for Gender Equality, the proposal is to collectively build a gender equality plan for the institution and implement actions that guarantee this objective through the involvement of technical and administrative staff, faculty, and students from different campuses and areas of knowledge, with experience in gender issues and feminist collectives.

Shuttle buses (BusUFF)

BusUFF is the exclusive and free transportation service for students to and from all university campuses in Niterói.

Libraries

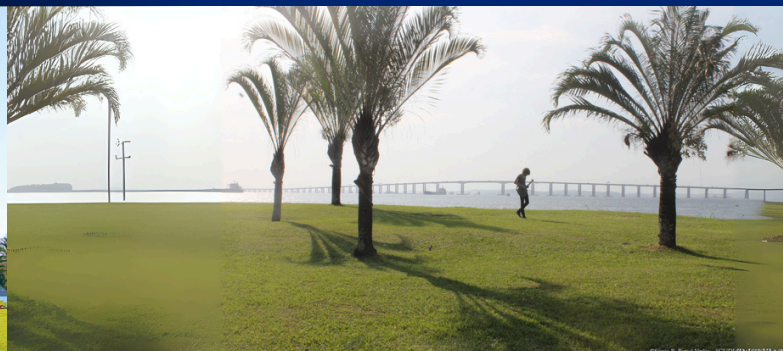

The Universidade Federal Fluminense has currently over 20 libraries, housing a comprehensive collection for research and an array of electronic catalogues available online. Find out more at Portal de Bibliotecas.

...and Diversity at UFF

At UFF, students are also encouraged to take part in extracurricular activities such as LGBTQI+ groups, religious meetings, women and race equality groups, athletics (sports associations), students' associations, community outreach work, etc.
